OTHER WAR HEADLINES

American troops have scored "further local advances" on the push to Bizerte in northern Tunisia. Allied headquarters announced today, and the British 1st Army beat off a series of violent German counter-attacks in the Medjez-El-Bab sector as the enemy fought desperately to guard the open plain before Tunis.
Simultaneously, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's British 8th Army, driving up the coastal region along a 30-mile front, gained its objective in a renewed surge against Axis mountain defenses.
"An enemy counter-attack in this sector achieved slight success," the Allied communique said.

through the enemy's mountain defenses guarding the Madjerda valley

Two Leading War Chiefs In Washington

Speculation Aroused Over Visit of Stilwell
and Chennault
PURPOSE IS UNREVEALED
By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Washington, April 30.—(P)—
The approaching climax in the battle of Tunisia provides a significant background for the Washington visit of the two leading American military figures in the China-India-Burma war theatre, Lieut. Gen.
Joseph W. Stilwell and Maj. Gen.
Claire L. Chennault.
They were called home, Secretary Stimson indicated, in line with war department policy of "periodic visits" by high ranking officers long in the field.
Conferences with Stimson, Gen.
George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and others, probably including President Roosevelt, are scheduled for Stilwell and Chennault. Stil-well commands all American army forces in the China-India-Burma theatre and also is chief of staff to the Chinese Generalissimo, Chiang Kai-Shek. Chennault commands the American 14th air force in China.
Despite official reticence as to the significance of the Stilwell-Chennault summons, the global war situation presents some obvious features of importance to their commands. The campaign to Moscow Silent on Nazi Report Of Offensive

By the Associated Press Moscow newspapers declared that tremendous events were imminent in Russia, but the Red army command was silent on German reports of a large-scale Soviet offensive developing against the Kuban bridgehead of the Caucasus.
Izvestia, the government newspaper, said an intensive summer campaign, which might well decide the war, would begin in May.
"Not many days separate us from the events," Izvestia said.
"This May we are at the threshold of a decisive stage of our sacred war of liberation."
While Izvestia thus intimated that the Red armies were preparing to launch an all-out drive against Hitler's invaders, dispatches noted that the Germans were moving up reinforcements, munitions and supplies in all sectors of the 1,000 mile battle line.
The German command said the Russians made strong attacks again yesterday in the Caucasus, battering against the narrow German bridgehead along the Black Sea and in the Taman peninsula, but asserted that they were repulsed.

Women Workers in War Loan Drive Are Lauded

The War Finance Committee is a resounding cheer for the work they have done. This has been the first major project of the newly organized workers in the Block ty Council of Defense.

Some 223 women in Warren borough under the chairmanship of Mrs. Katherine T. Davis have turned in orders that have resulted in $260 buyers totaling $176,825 in of Mrs. H. W. Conarro have assigned for 1163 War Bond pur-

MEAT RATION POINT VALUES ARE REVISED

Change Will Switch Many Appetites From Round Steak and Chops to Other Cuts

IS EFFECTIVE SUNDAY

Washington, April 30.—(P)—
The OPA today revised meat ration values, effective Sunday morning to switch many American appetites from round steak and center pork chops to other cuts, especially spareribs, brains, tongues and pig knuckles. Some people will find more expensive steaks more attractive on a point comparison.
Round steak (both beef and veal) and center pork chops each were raised a point to 9 points per pound. Loin pork roasts, slices of boneless ham steak and beef flank steaks also went up from 8 to 9 points per pound. Round tip beef roasts and veal sirloin or chops went up from 7 to 8 and veal leg roasts stepped up from 6 to 7.
Pork spareribs came down a point from 4 to 3 points per pound, hocks and knuckles from 3 to 2, and most variety meats (brains, sweetbreads, etc) were reduced a point per pound each. An exception was liver which was unchanged at 6 for beef and 8 for veal. Shank end ham, fresh or ready-to-heat, was cut a point. An odds of the new schedule is that, in coupons, round steak becomes more expensive than porterhouse steak, although the latter usually costs about 13 cents per pound more in cash. Persons having more cash than coupons may choose porterhouse, T-bone, sirloin, club and rib steaks at their continuing rate of 8 points per pound (except 10 inch rib which is 7) instead of round steak at 9. End pork chops remain at 7, lamb loin chops at 8, lamb rib chops at 7, and ham butt roasts at 7.
Widely-rumored reductions in luncheon meats, however, failed to materialize. And despite contrary forecasts, beef hamburger did not increase, remaining at 5 points per pound.
The order was the first major change in the scale of meat rations since beef, veal, lamb, mutton and pork were put under rationing on March 29. Minor adjustments in sausage points were the only previous alterations.
The new decree made a few changes in canned fish and cooking oils, but cheese and butter remained at 8 points per pound; lard margarine and shortening at 5.
Salad and cooking oils, however, were reduced from 6 to 5 points a pint (or pound).
The new point values will be applicable Sunday only to Red E and F and F coupons in the No.
2 ration book. A, B, C and D stamps will expire at midnight tonight. Blue D, E and F coupons for

EDGE A CANDIDATE

Newark, N. J., April 30.—(P)— Walter E. Edge, New Jersey's World War governor, announced today that he will again seek the gubernatorial nomination in the coming Republican primary. An-clouded by numbers of prospective "favorite son" candidates.

Edge received the support yesterday of a number of powerful Republican leaders.

Skirmish On Guadalcanal

Washington, April 30.—(P)— American troops wiped out a Japanese patrol of one officer and eight men on Guadalcanal Wednesday, the navy reported today, but the reason for the enemy's being on that American-occupied Solomon island was not given.
A communique said the patrol was discovered in the vicinity of Beaufort Bay on the western coast, about 25 miles southwest of the American airfield. All Japanese resistance on Guadalcanal ceased on February 9 though the mopping up of stragglers continued after that.
Whether the nine-man unit was simply one of the final groups of stragglers which had wandered down from the mountains to attempt an escape or whether it was a functioning military patrol put ashore was not disclosed by the navy.

Cleveland Back to Gas Buggy Days

With not a street car or bus operating during Cleveland's transit strike, the auto jam at the entrance to the high level bridge feeding west side traffic to the business district reminds of peacetime. There's many a "rider" in those cars, for drivers proved neighborly in helping war workers get to their jobs.

Internment Is Resisted By Dutch Forces

Netherlands Government In London Appeals To Former Members
400,000 ARE INVOLVED

London, April 30.—(P)—The Netherlands government in London appealed today to former members of the Dutch armed forces in the Netherlands to resist interment ordered by German occupation authorities.
"Don't register," the men were told in a broadcast over Radio Orange, "keep quiet. Disregard all orders and decrees."
"This is the advice the Netherlands government gives you. Disregard summonses. Try to make yourselves unfindable." Some 400,000 veterans of Holland's army are involved.
Officers and men alike, interned after Holland capitulated in May, 1940, to the Nazi war machine and later released on Adolf Hitler's orders, have been commanded to report at once for return to war prisoner camps, the Berlin radio announced last night.
The order was issued by Gen.
Friedrich Christiansen, commander of German forces in Holland, who last May sent back to prison camps in Germany 2,000 Netherlands officers on charges they had shown hostility to Germany.
The Berlin broadcast, explaining the newest decree, said "the German military commander of the Netherlands pointed out that the Fuehrer, when ordering the release of Dutch war prisoners, had naturally expected that they would refrain from anti-German activities."

12 ENTERED IN ANNUAL DERBY

Louisville, Ky., April 30.—(P)— A field of 12 three-year-olds was entered today to run in tomorrow's 69th Kentucky Derby, but there was still some doubt over the highly-regarded Ocean Wave would get to the post.
The 11 colts and one gelding entered through the racing secretary's office before the entry box closed were all that remained of the 110 originally nominated for the mile and a quarter grand two months ago.
The fate of Ocean Wave as a starter will not be known until tomorrow morning. The successor to Whirlaway in the barn of Warren Wright of Chicago and Lexington, Ky., suffered a foot injury in winning the Derby trial last Tuesday. Trainer Ben Jones had planned to give the colt his final "blowout" today and make up his mind about starting, but he decided to postpone this test until tomorrow and instead just jogged the Wave around the track.

MORE INDICTMENTS IN DEPOT INQUIRY

Harrisburg, April 30.—(P)— Three more indictments have been returned by a federal grand jury in its investigation into charges of fraud in construction of the $40,000,000 naval supply depot at nearby Mechanicsburg.
The indictments were returned yesterday against William F. Burkett, Leo Sweeney and Henry Baker on charges of obtaining from $250 to $10 from depot employees under threats of force and by intimidation.
Nine other persons previously indicted were granted a delay in arraignment until next month to permit filing of new motions in connection with the indictments against them.

Walkouts In Soft Coal Mines Sweep Toward A Tie-Up

By the Associated Press Walkouts in the soft coal mines swept toward an industry tie-up today and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers told President Roosevelt his plan for settlement of their wage dispute through the War Labor Board is unfair to "a half million of America's finest industrial workers."
"Our every request" could only be denied by the WLB, the miners' policy committee at New York told the president in reply to his appeal for uninterrupted production in the interest of war production. It called instead for "a renewal of collective bargaining." Meanwhile, time was running out fast, and miners were quitting work in droves, ahead of both the midnight expiration of their contract and the president's Saturday morning deadline for assurance the industry will keep rolling.
The miners made it clear they are waiting for a cue from John L.
Lewis. Pennsylvania supplied an example of the trend, the number of men on strike there increasing to more than 44,000 twenty-four hours before the 10 a. m. Saturday deadline set by the president for full scale resumption of mining.
In West Virginia, it was the same story. There union officers said "sentiment among the men is with Lewis and unless something happens the mines will close down at midnight tonight." Many of the mountaineers state a 136,000 miners, it was said, will leave work reluctantly but nevertheless they will leave unless their chief goes along with the White House order.
In Ohio, coal mine operators predicted that all the state's soft coal miners would join shortly in the walkout which sprang from a dispute over what wages should be provided in a contract succeeding the one expiring at midnight tonight.
Lewis' purpose in assembling the policy committee apparently was to decide what to do about the president's order, but he was silent. The anthracite contract also expires tonight, and New York conferees on this related dispute delayed resuming their meetings until after the UMW policy group has met.
As expressed by F. A. Norman, president of a local union in the Fayette (Pa.) field, this is the way the miners feel about it:
"If President Roosevelt came down to this patch himself and told these men to go back to work without an agreement, without a contract, they'd tell him:
"You go back and get an order from John L. Lewis. Then we'll go back to work."
In Washington, where some lawmakers have talked of possible legislation authorizing the seizure of struck plants and even the jailing of strike leaders, Senator Pepper (D-Pa.) issued a statement saying:

Appeal Is Unheeded In Pennsylvania

Leaders of Locals in Pittsburgh Area Refuse to Go Back to Work

VOTE TO REMAIN IDLE

Pittsburgh, April 30.—(P)— President Roosevelt's back-to-work appeal to striking coal miners apparently went unheeded in western Pennsylvania today, as leaders of union locals reaffirmed their determination not to work until John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, gives the word.
After hearing the president's appeal read to them, unionists at two mines of the Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal Company formally voted last night to remain idle.
A bit later 1,900 more of the company's workers quit. This left more than 40,000 about one-third of the state's soft coal miners—on strike and approximately 100 of its 1,600 bituminous mines closed.
There were no reports of any strikers returning to work.
Copies of President Roosevelt's telegram to Lewis, asking the miners "as a friend" to resume operations and let the War Labor Board handle their demands for higher pay, were read to members of all locals by their officers.
So far as could be learned, not a single local took a step to comply with the request, and locals of at least two, at the Kent Number One and Two mines of the Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal Company in Indiana county, voted to remain idle.
Workers at two other R. and P. mines, Ernest and Nu Mine, quit work last night, leaving only small pits, Helvetia, operating. The company has 5,600 employees.
Mike Yoswich, treasurer of the Fayette county local, summed up the sentiment of his companions:
"We won't return to work without Lewis orders us to do so."

"John L. Lewis has not only opposed the government, he has defied it. In time of war he is leading a rebellion, not so much to gain advantage for the miners as to gain power for John L. Lewis."

President Roosevelt sent his appeal to the mine union leaders yesterday, but Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said no reply had been received late this morning.

Thus the question of whether Saturday will see the nation's coal industry still shoveling fuel into the fires of war production seems strictly up to the head of the nation's 550,000 United Mine Workers in both the soft and hard coal fields.

President Roosevelt yesterday told Lewis that all strikes must stop by 10 a. m. Saturday or he will "use all the power vested in me as president and as commander-in-chief of the army and navy to protect the national interest."

But the zero hour loomed even nearer than that. Climaxing a quarrel over renewing a key wage contract, a nationwide shutdown impends at midnight—Lewis has said his nine workers "will not trespass" on company property thereafter. Unsatisfied walkouts already have taken nearly one-sixth of the affected 450,000 miners of the job and the rest reportedly are ready to follow the leader's work stoppage call.

Contracts covering 100,000 anthracite workers also expire at midnight, and Thomas Kennedy, UMW secretary-treasurer, replying to a question whether failure to reach an agreement would mean a work stoppage by those men said without amplification "the answer is obvious."

Fighting is Violent On Tunis Plain

"On the 1st Army front, there was various bitter fighting," Allied headquarters said.

The bloody Djebel Bou Aoukaz, scene of two costly British attempts to break through, is the last major barrier defending the Tunis plain.

In the skies, Allied bombers and fighters continuously blasted Axis troops and struck at enemy shipping in the Gulf of Tunis and the Sicilian Straits.

"Two vessels were sunk and direct hits scored on others," the Allied command said.

"During these attacks, strong forces of enemy fighters were encountered, 14 of them being destroyed." Ten Allied planes were lost.

The Italians asserted that "repeated enemy attempts to force our lines failed again yesterday in the face of fierce defense of German and Italian troops."

French troops attacking on both ends of the 100-mile western barrier were reported to have captured three more hilltops—one in the north at Djebel Elfena, in the Sidi Mansour region 22 miles west of Bizerte; and two in the ridges between Pont du Fahs and Djebelina in the south.

Corn is used in the manufacture of alcohol, sugar, starch and many other war supplies.

Wholehearted Commendation Is Given Senior Class Play

Artificial posies may have their place but certainly not in the bouquet to be handed to the senior class of Warren High School for its opening performance of "American Passport" at the high school auditorium last evening.

For the first time in many years of dramatic performances, in this writer's opinion, a senior class produced a play that is well worth any person's time and price of admission.

"American Passport", three-act comedy by Dana Thomas, is particularly suited to trends of the day, dealing, as the title would indicate, with a patriotic theme and emphasizing the dangers of development right in the genuinely American homes of "isms" and fifth column tendencies that are the delight of the enemy powers. Anna Louise Kahl, dramatics instructor, has done an excellent job with coaching of the production and was complimented by her cast with presentation of a bouquet of red roses.

Heading the cast were Dick Davis and Marion Kridler, with supporting roles by Gloria Genge, Harold Knappenberger, Jr., Melda Olsen, Dorothy Ann Harris, Alan Buerkle, Marcia Baxter, Anna Nichols, Jake Bariss, Laverne Peterson, Anne H. Arrington, Leroy Peck, Devere Matthews, Malcolm Young, Vide Knudsgaard, Ernest Breed, Ed Korb and Joan McGarry.

Music between the acts was in keeping with the general theme. Robert Dietsch singing "I Am An American" and Virginia Fredericks singing "When the Lights Go On Again". Both were accompanied at the piano by Loren Wright and responded to encores. Opening the program for the evening was a trumpet solo, "The Star Spangled Banner", played by Harold Knappenberger.

The second performance of "American Passport" will be given at 8:15 this evening and it is anticipated that those securing seats will be obliged to be on hand much earlier than that.

Classes Plan Study of Use Of Chemicals

Inaugurating his active campaign for instructing the various Civilian Defense Corps groups in the newer chemical warfare agents and methods of handling them, Lt. Victor VerMilylea, as senior gas officer of Warren county, has planned the first of several meetings and demonstrations.

The gathering, to be held in the small court room at the court house at 7:30 Monday evening, is open to all civilian defense officials but is planned particularly for decontamination squads, gas cleansing station personnel and the laundry official and his staff. The discussion will deal with both cleansing of personnel and decontamination of materials.

In line with promotion of this program, Lt. VerMilylea has appointed as Warren borough laundry officer James C. Hagan, who is superintendent of the Commonwealth Laundry Company.

Because several members of the decontamination squad have moved from Warren since formation of this defense unit, it will be necessary to secure at least five new volunteers, the gas officer announces today.

Any men interested in offering their services for this phase of the war program is asked to contact Lt. VerMilylea or to appear in person at the Monday night demonstration. This will constitute their preliminary training, he states.

You can travel north, east, south or west, from Greenwich, Conn., and strike some part of New York state.

Police Busy Answer Many Hurry Calls

After a night when there was but little activity, Warren's police last night were kept on the jump with a number of calls that kept the cruiser car and its men hopping from one end of the town to the other. Small boys throwing stones accounted for several calls from folk who know that new window glass is hard to procure. A family fight accounted for another call and the police found on their arrival that the wife bore battle scars and they advised her to see the district attorney relative to the case.

Two calls were answered to an east side home where a prowler was twice reported. At 10:20 the first call came that a 14-year-old girl had been grabbed on the arm by a man. Investigation failed to find the man. A second call at 12:15 this morning was followed by a quick trip by the cruiser car, which placed an officer at the rear of the home before the caller had left the telephone. No prowler was located.

A Jamestown man was picked up after it was alleged that he had tried to get a woman into his automobile. He stated that he was on his way to Kane and thought the woman merely wanted a ride. He was warned to be on his way and not try to give any more Warren women a ride.

Police also arrested Mike Kundla, of 101 Ruggie street, Dunkirk, after his motorcycle had struck Donald Milenius, 18 Brook street, on Market street. Milenius was removed to the General Hospital, where it was found he had sustained a fractured leg. Kundla was charged with operating a motorcycle without a license.

Army Takes Over Control Of C.A. Patrol

President Roosevelt issued an executive order today transferring the civil air patrol from the office of civilian defense to the war department. There are approximately 60,000 civilian-owned planes operating in the service now under control of James M. Landis, OCD director. These planes have flown submarine patrols on the eastern coast, also have maintained patrols along communications lines, guarded against forest fires and served in emergency transportation service for the army and other government agencies. The transfer order becomes effective immediately.

LEWIS VS. ROOSEVELT

All developments in the soft coal wage dispute seem due to await the president's deadline tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and any decision that may be made by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers.

The deepening pre-deadline tension heard the name "dictator" added to Lewis' long list of appellations which have varied from Messiah to Mountebank during more than a decade of major labor developments. It came from Senator Connally, of Texas, author of a bill that would provide for seizure of mines, and recalled the stormy crises of the labor leader's career.

Creator of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, and its first president, the stocky, beetle-browed Lewis stepped into the limelight long ago when he split the union movement to organize millions of workers outside the ranks of the American Federation of Labor.

During the turbulent thirties he was labor's strong man—both hailed and hated—and seemed at the peak of his CIO power when he threw his support behind the Roosevelt campaign for re-election in 1936.

But later he broke with the president, bowing out of the CIO leadership after opposing the third term. He subsequently parted with Philip Murray, his long-time friend and successor at the CIO helm—and his United Mine Workers followed him out of the CIO he had formed.

Some said his star was fading, but others termed the spreading UMW organization the start of a third labor movement.

And its unprecedented challenge of President Roosevelt's wartime powers was seen in some sources as Lewis' latest bid for power.

"NATIONAL FAMILY WEEK"

Roman Catholic and Jewish leaders in family life will join with Protestant forces this year in a country-wide observance of "National Family Week," May 2-9, the International Council of Religious Education announces.

Agencies of the Federal government interested in the family, will co-operate in focusing public attention upon the importance of the family in our democracy. Ten thousand local Defense Councils have been urged to support the churches in this observance, according to Dr. Maynard L. Cassady of the national Office of Civilian Defense. Schools, civic and social agencies, libraries and clubs also have been asked to co-operate.

The purpose of National Family Week is the spiritual strengthening of family life to meet successfully the war-time and post-war conditions which tend to menace and disrupt families. Particular attention will be paid to the conservation and improvement of family life to combat the rising tide of juvenile delinquency.

"The church and home are generators of moral and spiritual values," says Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the International Council of Religious Education. "They must work together in promoting the highest standards of family life and in creating attitudes which will overcome prejudice and hatred to make possible a lasting peace of justice and restored good neighborliness."

National Family Week is an expansion of "Christian Family Week" launched two years ago by the Inter-Council Committee on Family Life, representing the International Council of Religious Education, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and the United Council of Church Women.

EAT AT A BAR

Many of our rationing headaches result from failure of responsible officials to consult, in advance, with practical experts in the fields covered. In too many instances a broad overall plan is evolved by ivy-cloistered strategists, but no attempt is made to seek out the scores of exceptions which would make the master plan workable.

This could be illustrated in many ways. A good one is the fact that nobody in OPA troubled to differentiate between restaurant customers for food and those for drinks. An eating place gets just as many ration points for a man who steps up to the bar and tosses off a glass of beer as for one who eats a full-course meal. So the restaurant with a bar can supply more meat and more canned goods, for each eating customer, than the one without a bar.

A Lot of Help He Turned Out to Be!

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINETT

WASHINGTON — Among the records in the War Department is one file that is causing more "Well-I'll-be-darneds" from oldtime Army men than any in the cabinets. It's the file on the training record of the I-Bs.

The way I get it, it became apparent only a few months after Pearl Harbor that the strict physical requirements of the Army (and Navy) were knocking out more men than they could spare. After all, they argued, there should be some place they could use young fellows who didn't quite fit into the bluebook of military physical requirements.

A survey of Army jobs, from combat pilot down to counter and desk jobs, showed that one-fourth of the work could be handled easily by men who are "sub-standard" on physical examination records. That means that in an army of 10,000,000, at least 2,500,000 wouldn't have to toe the mark physically. And, if the Army could find a way of getting these boys in, there would be just that many family men, farmers and war plant workers who could be spared.

THAT'S what caused Selective Service to "experiment" with drafting I-Bs. How to train them was a stumper until a couple of fellows at Camp McCoy, northwest of Chicago, decided that the only solution was a special training course.

On the recommendation of Gen. Henry S. Aurand, commander of the Sixth Service Command, the first I-B boys marched into Camp McCoy about nine months ago.

Some had missing trigger fingers; others had glass eyes, little hunches in the back, or limping hangers from spinal meningitis or football days. Some had a mouthful of bridgework, a deaf ear or a few toes short of the usual ten. Don't get me wrong; these weren't and aren't wrecks. They were and are sturdy lads who just missed a step or two on the ladder to physical perfection.

Probably nine out of ten of them could and would make a helme or a Jap yell uncle if they met him on the field of battle. It's just that because the Army has found through years of experience that the odds might be slightly against these boys, no matter what their spirit, that it has placed them on the physical blacklist. But at Camp McCoy, according to official files here, they don't belong there.

IN A few months they have drilled like West Pointers on parade. In basic training some are weeks ahead of the "regular" Army trainees. Some hard-of-hearing and one-eyed boys are aces on handling the big guns—where deafness is almost an asset and only one eye is needed at the sights anyway.

Others are bakers, repairmen, carpenters, chefs, electricians, supply clerks, stenographers, chauffeurs, bandmen, and any of a hundred other toilers in the khaki vineyard. When this war is over, the I-Bs are going to have a big chapter in the military record.

Stamp News

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Jimmy Durante, who was Hollywood's forgotten man until he went to New York for an appearance at the Copacabana night club, has landed a top role in Joseph Pasternak's production, "A Tale of Two Sisters."

Jimmy's is the old story of an established star who should be kept busy, but isn't. The New York appearance proved just the tonic Jimmy needed, and it's not the first time, nor the hundredth, that a Hollywood discard got himself rediscovered by the New York night clubs. M-G-M has signed him to a long-term contract.

The same Pasternak production, incidentally, will bring out another New Yorker of more established residence. He is Alan Reed, veteran character actor who gave up his original name of Ted Bergman when he became a radio announcer. Reed reportedly has been doing a slick job in the Lunt-Fontanne stage hit, "The Pirates."

SHORT TAKES: Ruth McKenney, who wrote the magazine sketches that led to the stage and screen hit "My Sister Ellen," has sold the screen rights for "Washington, I Love You" to Columbia, marking the first time she has written directly for the screen. The first ten issues of "The World in Action," two-reel war films produced by the National Film Board of Canada and released by United Artists, have had more than 60,000 commercial bookings in the United States alone. . . . Ann Miller has been cast in "Hey, Rookie," screen version of the service show by yard-birds from Fort MacArthur, and which has been running 29 weeks in a Los Angeles theater. . . .

Ginny Simms, no stranger to the films through appearances with Kay Kyser's orchestra, is listed for a projected M-G-M musical. . . . Charles Bickford, who owned a 39-acre island in the Sundra group now held by the Japanese, auctioned off title to the island and bought a war bond with the $18.75 proceeds. . . . Esther Williams, the bathing beauty who broke into pictures via Mickey Rooney's "Andy Hardy" series, has been assigned a lead in a Red Skelton picture, "Mr. Co-ed."

BROOKLYN'S No. 1 woman baseball fan, Hilda Chester, one of the famous cowbell and batcraze, "It's in the bag" will be glorified, if only briefly, in the Skelton picture "Whistling in Brooklyn." . . . Tim Whelan is back in Hollywood under a talent hunt for RKO Radio's scheduled musical, "Higher and Higher."

Said hunt was carried out in 16 Broadway shows, 24 broadcasts and 18 night clubs. If that sounds like a soft life, try it some time. I'll get you down. . . . The class of 1944 at the University of California upset precedent this year when a motion picture was submitted for the usual stage show at the junior prom. The picture, chosen by vote, was Cary Grant's newest, "Mr. Lucky."

William Cosmano is erecting a single story brick building on Pennsylvania avenue, west where in Tom Daly will conduct a pool room.

Commander William Healey, of the American Legion will spend tomorrow in Warren. While here he will give a public address in the high school.

The Y. M. C. A. has purchased the Baptist church on Liberty street. This will remove the last of the original church buildings in this city. The old church was moved to Warren from Kiantone, N. Y.

The pictures taken of the road between Warren and Clarendon are on display in the Clarendon postoffice and have attracted a large amount of attention as they show the need of a decent road in no uncertain way.

In 1933

An unusual service has been arranged at the First Presbyterian church for Sunday. The singing of old hymns will be the big feature of the service.

Members of the Good Roads committee of the county are at work endeavoring to get a new bridge built across Kinzua creek at Kinzua. The present bridge is narrow and is held to be highly dangerous being set at an angle.

Earl Siggins, of Youngsville has presented the community with a large number of evergreen and maple trees to be planted in Island Park. The Park is a popular meeting place for picnickers and many family reunions are held there.

Engineers of the R. W. Norris company are making a survey of Youngsville and as a result the citizens there may form an electric company to furnish light and power for the borough.

A tub of butter weighing 1740 pounds and consigned to the A. & P. Company at Newark, N. J., passed through the city today.

—SUNDAY SERVICES IN WARREN CHURCHES—

CHURCH NOTES

There will be no evening service at St. Paul's church on Sunday and guest preacher at both the English and Swedish services in the morning will be Rev. E. J. Erlandson, of LaPorte, Ind. For the English service he will speak on "Resurrection Convictions" and in the Swedish service on "Da Herren Kommer". Pastor Erlandson will be accompanied by his wife and both will be guests of Pastor and Mrs. Bertil Edquist at St. Paul's parsonage.

Pastor Carl Gronquist announces the following special events for next week at Bethany Lutheran church in Sheffield: Monday, 7:30 p. m., board of administration; Tuesday, 8 p. m., Loyalty Bible Class; Wednesday, 2:30 p. m., Women's Missionary Society, and 8 p. m., choir rehearsal. At his charge at Moriah church in Ludlow, these meetings are scheduled: Thursday, 8 p. m., Young Women's Missionary Society; Friday, 2:30 p. m., Ladies' Aid, and 8 p. m., Luther League; Saturday, 9:45 a. m., confirmation instruction.

At its Sunday evening worship period, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, the United Brethren congregation will observe "young people's anniversary". Younger members of the church will conduct the service, including special music, and Pastor W. G. Woodward will bring a message on "Guidance for Living".

Soldier Has Distinctive Preferences

Does your soldier, coming home on furlough, have any special ideas about how things ought to be at home? You bet he does! And they're not what you'd expect, either.

In camp, of course, he doesn't have much chance to express his individual preferences, except in the matter of the cigarettes he buys at his Post Exchange or Canteen. But when he's on furlough, here's a list (partial, of course) of what Johnny Doughboy prefers:

Girls: As always, some like 'em tall and some like 'em short, some like 'em blonde and some like 'em dark; but one thing they all agree on: a girl should be feminine. No mannish, tailored outfits; no slacks, please; and especially—no semi-military clothes. Frills and furbelows—that's the way to please the man on furlough.

Movies: Nothing grim, thanks. He likes musicals, and service adventure stories with good rousing action, and plenty of comic interludes.

Cigarettes: Here's one place where a soldier doesn't have to wait till he goes on furlough to express his preference. According to actual sales records right at the Post Exchanges and Canteens, where every soldier can buy the brand of cigarettes he likes, the favorite with men in the Army (and in the Navy, Coast Guard, and Marines as well) is Camel.

Food: This one will astonish veterans of the first World War, with memories of "beans-for-breakfast, beans-for-lunch, and beans-for-dinner-too"—but today's furloughing soldier doesn't get off the train with visions of pies, steaks, or salads. He is served all those right in camp. He'll be happy with any kind of good food, BUT—he wants it served on separate plates.

Here's why: In the Army, everything is heaped onto one plate. His mess tray has compartments, to be sure, but they aren't always sufficient of a barrier to keep his salad out of his mashed potatoes, and his steak away from his ice cream. So you see—separate plates!

With much rain and streams swift, trout fishing has not been as good as usual this season but the fish caught have been larger than some years.

Kenneth Sample caught a two pound trout in this vicinity and other unusually good fish have been reported though not in quantity.

SMALL BOYS IN TROUBLE

Spring, perhaps, is to blame for the outbreak of trouble for small boys in this section. Warren police have been busy with "boy trouble" for some time and at least one or two serious cases were handled. At Kane, a group of lads of 10 years broke into a home, stole a quantity of guns, etc., and did damage estimated at $1000. In Corry a group of lads broke into the offices of the Atlantic Refining Company, smashed materials in the office and did great damage.

more were used for the past two years in stocking streams in this vicinity with trout ought to ensure better fishing in the future. Trout now caught in local streams may be of three varieties; namely speckled brook trout, rainbow and brown trout. All of these are very good eating.

THE WARREN NATIONAL BANK, EXECUTOR UNDER WILL OF HARRY WALTER MITCHELL, DECEASED. ALEXANDER, CLARK AND STEWART, Attorneys. April 30, May 7-14-31

THE SUMMER work uniform for both officers and enlisted women in the WAVES and SPARS will be a navy blue cotton gabardine suit instead of the previously announced reserve blue suit of the same material. The change was made because the reserve blue color, now used for the winter work shirts and for officers' sleeve stripes, was found to be unsatisfactory for the entire suit.
